NOTES FROM OTHER SOURCES THAT RELATE TO FAMILIES INCLUDED ABOVE

House #3 Probably, Moses Maurer, Osias Maurer, and Abraham Maurer were brothers because they each named their children Mechel Yossel, probably after Mechel Mauer, 1822-1885, presumably their father. Osias (Shaya) married Sarah Adler; Moses died in 1886 at 26, married to Ruchel/Rachel. Hinde Maurer (1824-1879) died at 55, probably wife of Mechel. Abraham was married to Taube Lea Schwadron of Remirow. Schwadrons were in great number in Zloczow. I think the Mauer brothers went to New York in 20th century.

There was a Berl Kiwetz who married (Chaya) in 1871, the son of Wulf. He might have been Alte Chaya Kiwetz' father.

There was a second marriage for widow Chaye Gittel Pundyk (b. 1879) to a "Mr. Jager" (or Yaeger). He went to NY first, then brought over Gittel, her children and his children from first marriage. Can't make out Mr. Jager's first name in boat papers. Maybe "Sch" for Schimon or Schumel? Chaye and Mr. Jaeger had a daughter who died at age 2 in Europe. I do not know if that was in Poland or on route to America.

Sara was mother to Cohava Ofir (03-64-27859), according to 1999 testimony—in Tel Aviv. Abraham Marder was the sister of Perle Leah Marder Heiman. So, Cohava Ofir and Ann Harris have the same great-great grand parents—Ann’s grandmother’s mother and Cohava’s grandfather’s father were brother and sister. Harvey Herman is doubled related to them. His grandfather, Chaim Mordechai Heiman was the son of Perle Leah Marder Heiman. Also, his second wife (whom he married around 1902 after his wife died in childbirth with Harvey’s father) was Mattel Marder, the sister of Mordechai Marder.

From this, his parents were Moses and Sara Jaeger. Sara Jaeger was the daughter of Abraham Marder and Ciril Ettel Feuerring. Besides Zelig, they had Brane (Bronislawa, Bronia) and Zeinvel (Sanie). Brane was born in 1903 and was married to David Gelber—their first child was Moses. Zeinvel was born in 1906 and married to Fania Akselrad (b. 1911 daughter of Chaim and Rivke)—they had a child, Tzila, who was 8. Additionally, Miriam Klar (or Keller) gave testimony about Zeinvel—she was said to be his sister. She also gave testimony about Fania Jaeger, her sister-in-law (Zeinvel’s wife). There were also records for Abraham and Devora Klar (Keller) made by brother of Abraham and also Zelig Jaeger, who said he was acquaintance. Other brother said that Devora was a Kretz and Zelig said she was a Krell. They were about 40 and 38. Zelig said she was daughter of Moshe. Abraham was said to be son of Josef and Chane. This set of records raises more questions than answers them.

Zelig Jaeger was listed as an acquaintance, but he knew details about Rivke Byk Adler, her parents Mendel and Malka Byk, and Perel Byk Rapp, sister and daughter, and Bunka Byk Adler, married to Yacov.
